

David Kasyan, Ed.D.

Principal

Brick Township High School

Dr. David Kasyan is the proud principal of Brick Township High School. He began his career in education in the Jackson School District where he was a special education teacher in the elementary and high school grade levels prior to becoming an assistant principal at the elementary level. Dr. Kasyan joined the Brick Township School District in 2017, when he became the principal of Emma Havens Young Elementary School. He accepted his current position as principal of Brick Township High School in July of 2021. Dr. Kasyan completed his undergraduate education at Lebanon Valley College, where he double majored in Elementary Education and Special Education. He received his Masters in Administration and Leadership from Georgian Court University and Doctorate in Education: Educational Leadership from Saint Peter's University. Dr. Kasyan embraces a shared leadership philosophy, empowering students and staff to contribute and collaborate towards a positive school culture. Dr. Kasyan is an advocate for inclusive education practices, responsive instruction, and equity. He believes it is our responsibility to develop the whole child, while working collaboratively with all stakeholders within a learning community to achieve desired outcomes of success. Dr. Kasyan received the New Jersey State PTA Outstanding Principal of the Year award in 2021. Additionally, Dr. Kasyan works with the New Jersey Leadership Academy (NJLA) to provide professional development to current and aspiring leaders. Moreover, Dr. Kasyan currently sits on the Board of Trustees for the Foundation for Educational Administration (FEA) and currently serves on the Regional Education Laboratories (REL) Mid-Atlantic Region Governing Board.